The Daily Courant.

Tuesday, February 4. 1707.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Feb. 8.

Rome, Jan. 15.

THE Bishop of Warmia and the Palatine his Brother are goue from hence for Poland. The Bishop of Posnania is recovering from his Indisposition. The Queen Dowager of Poland has sent a Gentleman to Saxony, to congratulate King Stanislaus on his Accession to the Crown. On Sunday last Te Deum was sung by Order from the Pope, in the Church here belonging to the Polish Nation, for the Peace concluded between King Augustus and King Stanislaus.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Feb. 12.

Rome, Jan. 22. The 16th Instant the Pope sent Order to the Deputies and Priests of the Polish Church here, to take down the Arms of King Stanislaus which they had put up, otherwise it should be done by Force. Hereupon the Priests applied themselves to the Queen Dowager of Poland, who besought his Holyness not to offer such an Affront to King Stanislaus, who had written a very civil Letter to him to acquaint him with the Conclusion of the Peace with King Augustus; and that therefore such a Proceeding might be of very ill Consequence: 'Tis not known what Answer his Holyness gave her; but the next Morning the foresaid Arms were pull'd down by Force, for what Reason is not rightly known: But 'tis gues'd 'twas done, least Cardinal Grimani should have follow'd the Example, and have put up the Arms of King Charles III on the Frontispiece of the Church of our Lady of Montserat belonging to the Spanish Nation. 'Tis said a Courier is gone to the Abbot Riviera, with Order, that seeing he arriv'd too late at Milan to speak to Prince Eugene about the Contributions demanded by him of the Territories of the Church, he should forthwith send an Express to Vienna with the Pope's Letters touching that Affair, and come back from Milan. In a Congregation held some Days ago about the Ceremonial, it was resolv'd, that for the future the Cardinals shall not take off their Caps even before Kings themselves, nor Stop their Coaches for any Person whatever; and that when they are visited by Ambassadors, they shall receive them at the Top of the Stairs, without going 3 Steps down as hitherto has been practis'd.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Feb. 11.

Rome, Jan. 22. 'Tis reported, that in an Audience Cardinal Grimani had of the Pope t'other Day, he represented, that King Stanislaus's Arms having been put up over the Door of the Church here belonging to the Polish Nation, tho' his Holyness had not yet acknowledg'd him for King, Leave ought likewise to be given for the putting up the Arms of King Charles III over the Door of the Church of Monserrat: Upon which the Cardinal Vicar being consulted, Order was sent to the Deputies and Priests of the Polish Church to take down the Arms of King Stanislaus: Which was done on Monday last, notwithstanding the Instances and Petitions made to the Pope, to suspend that Order.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Feb. 12.

Venice, Jan. 28. The heavy Artillery being arriv'd before the Castle of Modena, the Imperialists have renew'd their firing on that Castle with Cannon and Mortars: The Governour appears dispos'd to yield it up into the Hands of the Duke of Modena, who continues at Bologna. Cremona is not block'd up so close as has been reported, for Provisions are daily brought into it by the Peasants, who are well paid for it: General Toralba has caus'd a 2d Excursion to be made by a Party of that Garrison, which at first succeeded well, but his Men advancing too far, were driven back with great Loss by the Imperialists.

Milan, Jan. 29. The 27th Instant General Schlick arriv'd here; and Yesterday Prince Eugene of Savoy return'd hither from Turin. After he has receiv'd the Submission of our Magistrates &c, in the Name of King Charles III, his Highness will set out for Vienna. They write from Florence, that the Great Duke of Tuscany has been requir'd on the Part of the Emperour to furnish Quarters in the Territory of Pisa to 6 Regiments, and to pay 300000 Pistoles Contributions for the Fiefs he holds of the Empire: Whereupon he has sent Signior Antinori to remonstrate, that he will not consent to the quartering of those Regiments, and that he cannot imagine how he comes to be ask'd such an Exorbitant Sum besides, since he paid but 16000 Crowns in the last War. All the Offices formerly establish'd here by King Philip, are suppress'd; so that a great Number of Officers will be strip'd of their Employments.

Roveredo, Jan. 30. The 21st of this Month the D. of Mantua arriv'd at Verona, accompanied by the French Envoy, and attended by a Guard of 1500 French Horse: He retir'd into a Convent, because he was refus'd the Attendance of his Guards: But having caus'd Inquiry to be made for a Palace to lodge in, 'tis believ'd he designs to make some stay there, the rather because Persons of his Court arrive there daily: Yet 'tis thought he intends to go to Venice, or Ravenna. 'Tis said General Delfino has made him a Visit, under pretence of going to Mass in the Convent where he is lodgid.

From the Upper-Rhine, Feb. 3. The Conferences of 4 of the Circles of the Empire appointed to be held at Hailbron, were open'd the 1st of this Month, and are to continue to the 10th; in order to the agreeing on proper Measures for opposing the Enemy, who threaten to besiege a Place of great Importance. Levies are continued to be made for the King of Sweden in the Cities of the Empire, with great Success, but for what End Time must shew.

Francfort, Feb. 6. The 4th Instant 300 Quintals of Powder and a great Number of Bullets were sent from hence under a good Guard to Landau, whither some Cannon and Ammunition of all Sorts will likewise be sent. Care is taken to provide Philipsbourg for Defence likewise.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Feb. 11.

Zolkiew, Jan. 12. The 8th at Night the Czar arriv'd here; and being inform'd by his Ministers of what had pass'd during his Absence, he order'd them to write to all the Generals of the Army of the Crown and to the Senators, to invite them to repair to him. He also order'd Universalia in his own Name to be printed, for confirming those already publish'd by his Ministers. The 9th he went to Church attended by Prince Menzikow, and other Ministers and Generals: And afterwards din'd in Publick. The 10th and 11th were spent in Conferences about the Disposing of the Army, and in sending private Dispatches to divers foreign Courts. M. Szembeck Archbishop of Gnesna and Primate, and the Vice-Chancellor of the Kingdom, who are at Jaroslaw, have sent Word that they will stay there till the Time appointed for the Council to assemble at Lemberg.

Lublin, Jan. 16. The 10th Instant the Nobility and Officers of this Palatinate open'd their Diet in this City. The Universalia of Prince Menzikow, of the Primate of the Kingdom, and of the Palatin of Belz were read; after which 2 Deputies were nominated to go and represent to Prince Menzikow, that that the Muſcovites exact greater Contributions than are ſpecified in the Univerſalia, and to deſire him to remedy it: And then the Diet was prorogu'd to the 1ſt of May next.

Hambourg, Feb. 4. 'Tis advis'd from Poland, that the Saxon Troops being all march'd out of Upper Poland for Saxony, ſome of the Troops of the Crown have taken Poſſeſſion of the Caſtle of Warſaw, as has the Marſhal of the Confederacy of that of Cracow. They add, that the Czar deſigns to go to Lemberg, to be preſent at the Council which is to aſſemble there the 7th of this Month.

An Extract of a Letter from Saxony dated the 2d of February. M. Printz, the King of Pruſſia's Miniſter, ſet out from Leipſich the 27th paſt, to return to Berlin: 'tis ſaid he could not agree with King Staniſlaus on the Ceremonial. King Auguſtus has been at Lichtenbourg, to ſee the Electoreſs his Mother and the Prince Royal his Son; and thence return'd to Dreſden. The Queen is expected at Leipſich the 4th Inſtant: The Princeſs Ragotski, who was ſome where about Carelsbad in Bohemia, under the Guard of an Imperial Officer, is brought into Saxony by a Party of Swedes. 'Tis ſaid ſhe has had an Audience of the King of Sweden, and has deſir'd his Majeſty to offer his Mediation for procuring Peace in Hungary.

Leipſich, Feb. 3. The Princeſs Ragotski is in this City. King Auguſtus arriv'd here the 2d Inſtant and his Queen the next Day. 'Tis ſaid Count Piper has propos'd to the Eſtates of this Electorate, who are to pay 900000 Rixdollars Contributions for the Months of January and February, that in Caſe they will immediately pay down half that Sum, half the Swediſh Forces ſhall forthwith march out of the Country.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated Feb. 10.

Paris, Feb. 4. 'Tis ſaid the Count de Theſſe is gone for Grenoble; that he will find there a great Magazine ready, with a new Train of Artillery, and Proviſions of War of all Sorts; that the Troops in thoſe parts are already encreas'd to 30000 Men; and that 'tis propos'd to make up the Duke of Orlean's Army 60 Battallions and 100 Squadrons. The Duke de Noailles is to ſet out for Rouſſillon the 15th Inſt. The Duke de Vendome is come to Court from Anet, and has told the Officers that have waited on him, that he was ready to be gone aſſoon as the King ſhould order him. The 2d Inſtant an Officer who left Madrid the 24th paſt arriv'd here, and reports, that the Duke of Berwick was gone from that City to view ſome Poſts on the Frontier of Arragon, and to give neceſſary Orders to the Troops that are to form the Army that is to act under King Philip; that the ſaid Army will be compos'd of 32 Battallions and 36 Squadrons of French, and 66 Battallions and 36 Regiments of Spaniſh Horſe and Dragoons; that the King would ſet out from Madrid the 20 Inſtant, and that 'twas deſign'd M. de Legal ſhould enter Arragon by Tudela, and M. Geofreville by Molina, while the Duke of Berwick under King Philip acts in Valencia. The Archduke has made the Count de Noyelles Viceroy of Arragon, and chang'd the Magiſtrates of Saragoſſa. The Farmers, and the General Receivers of the King's Revenue, have given out their Notes in Exchange for Mintbills, and other Mintbills have been paid in to the Town-houſe of Paris on Loans, in all to the Sum of 30 millions; yet the Mintbills that are ſtill out do not riſe at all in their Value, and the Scarcity of Money ſtill encreaſing, the King has deſir'd the Clergy to advance 25 or 30 millions in Money at a certain Intereſt, and take Mintbills to that Value and alſo his Word for their Security; and they having agreed to it, are conſulting in what manner to raiſe it.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Feb. 11.

Paris, Feb. 7. The Guards du Corps are warn'd to be ready to paſs in Review before the King the 1ſt of March, in order to begin their March for Liſle 4 Days after. The 18000 Recruits which are raiſing in ſeveral Provinces for the Duke of Orleans's Army, are to be on the Frontier of Savoy by the End of this Month, his Majeſty deſigning that that Prince ſhall march into Piemont aſſoon as poſſible, in order to ſuccour General Medavi. Letters from Madrid of the 22d paſt confirm, that the Duke of Berwick is gone to the Frontiers of Arragon and Valencia, to form the Army, and have an Eye to the Succours the Enemy expect from Portugal. Several General Officers are gone after the Marſhal de Theſſe to Dauphine.

Lisbon, Jan. 19. Yeſterday ſail'd out of the Tagus for Valencia, the Fleet of Men of War and Tranſports commanded by Sir Cloudſly Shovell, with the Land Forces on Board under the Command of the Earl Rivers.

EDINBURGH.
